

"I enjoy making wine, because this sublime nectar is quite simply incapable of lying. Picked too early, picked too late, it matters not - the wine will always whisper into your mouth with complete, unabashed honesty every time you take a sip."

-Uncle Henry

The Sangiovese from the vineyard adjacent the stables has been made into a delicious drop by skilled and loving hands... and a little help from one bright orange tractor.

 GENT & CO.

WINERY

